DXpedition News

Cambodia - XU Sandor (Sanyi) HA7VK is currently active as XU7VK from the Hungarian embassy in Phnom Penh, running a kilowatt into a 12-element log periodic. He prefers 21315 kHz 16-1800Z, but may be able to operate on the new bands, as well. There is no CW key in the embassy, but he may take one with him at the end of his summer vacation. Sanyi is on a two-year assignment in Cambodia. QSL via Szabo Laszlo HAØHW PF 24, H-4151 Puspoklandany, Hungary.

Guinea-Bissau - J5 Another embassy amateur is Mark J5UAI. Mark is a new amateur with a Novice license stateside, and has few CW or pile-up skills, so DXers should be very patient. Dave A22MN will help Mark master the pile-ups, especially on 15-meter SSB Saturday mornings. QSL to NW8F, but note that QSL cards will take a month or more to be printed.

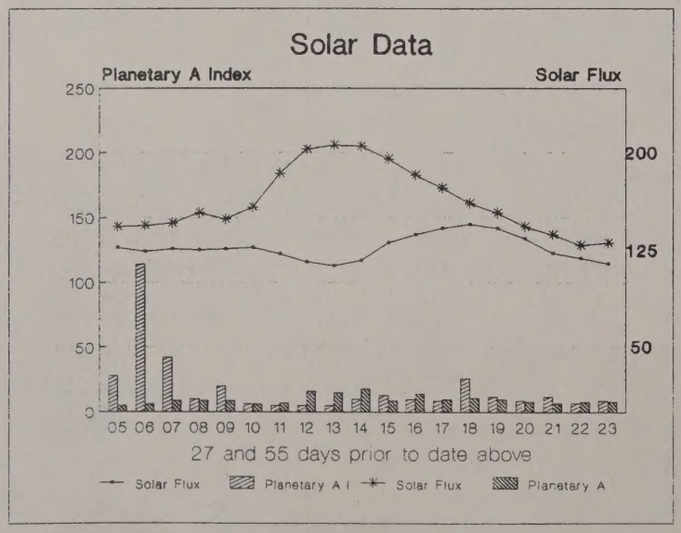
Propagation Watch

Solar activity continues to drop. The solar flux fell below 100, to the lowest level in several years. The sun is almost spotless. There is nothing to suggest that this trend will reverse; be prepared for at least another month of minimal solar activity.

The very low solar flux levels, combined with seasonal drops in the maximum useable frequency (MUF) have adversely affected the higher bands. Most contacts on 10 and 12 meters are north-south, with some multiple-hop E-skip QSOs to add occasional excitement. Long-haul signals are also weak, and openings are very short. DXers should try for contacts at sunrise and sunset, to take advantage of the enhanced propagation at those times.

Fortunately, the very low solar activity has also meant a quiet geomagnetic field. Long-path and polar-path signals are weak, but workable. Try 15 meters a hour or two after local sunset, when the D layer of the ionosphere has dissipated; listen carefully for weak signals. There are even some DX opportunities on the lower bands, when the geomagnetic field is especially quiet.

Sunspot Region 7185 is growing rapidly, and may produce some flare activity this next week. otherwise, expect continued quiet conditions in the ionosphere.



South American CW Contest
June 13-14

The 1992 World Wide South American CW Contest runs 1500Z June 13 to 1500Z June 14. 160, 80, 40, 20, 15, and 10 meters, CW only. Single-op, single-band; single-op, all-band; multi-single; and QRP (10 watts maximum, single-op, all-band) categories. Exchange RST and consecutive serial number beginning with 001. Work stations once per band. Contacts with one's own country count 0 points; with stations on the same continent 2 points; with stations on other continents 4 points; and with South American stations 8 points. Multipliers are DXCC countries (including South American countries) plus South American prefixes per band. Send separate logs per band by July 31 to WWSA Contest Committee, P. O. Box 2673, 20001 Rio de Janeiro, RJ Brazil. Include an SAE and IRC for a copy of the results.

Reciprocal Operating Licenses in Albania

"According to laws passed in January, The National Radiocommunications Commission issues licenses. Licenses for foreign radio amateurs are issued for a period of three months, and cannot be renewed during the same year. These foreign licensees will sign ZA/(home call)—for example, ZA/K5UR.

"The General Directorate of the Albanian PTT is preparing a packet of laws that include amateur radiocommunications. In the future, the proper telecommunications authorities will issue all licenses.

"License applications must be sent to the Albania Radioamateur Association (AARA) at P. O. Box 66, Tirana. The AARA will handle the necessary procedures for obtaining the license from the Commission."

Spanish Special Callsigns

In connection with the Olympic Games in Barcelona, there are lots of special callsigns in Spain, until Oct. 31. The official Olympic stations are EH92JOB and EG92JOB. 17 stations will operate with prefixes EH92, EG92, EHØ, and EGØ with a single-letter suffix. Stations in the third call area and in the provinces of Valencia (EA5) and Zaragoza (EA2) may substitute AM25 for EA, and AO25 for EC. (EB stations may use AN25, but these are VHF-only stations.) They will add a single letter indicating their province, as follows: Barcelona, Gerona, Lérida, Tarragona, Valencia, and Zaragona. Thus AM25DFWB is EA3DFW, in Barcelona. Finally, all Spanish stations, including EA8 and EA9 stations, may substitute AM for EA, and AO for EC (and AN for EB).

At the same time, stations in the province of Sevilla will celebrate the Universal Exposition by substituting AM92 for EA and AO92 for EC (and AN92 for EB). The official exposition station will sign EF92EXPO or EFØEXPO. (Thanks to EA3DU of the Spanish CQ magazine for this summary.)

USSR Callbooks

The first USSR callbook, with 512 pages of addresses in both Cyrillic and Latin characters, is reliably available from Knut Theurich Y24HO, Theuberger Verlag, Oberwasserstrasse 12, O-1080 Berlin, for US$20 or 30 IRCs. Make checks payable to Theuberger Berlin.
